

IU School of Medicine SCOPE

February 20, 2009
Volume 13 Number 7 • Indianapolis, Indiana

IUPUI will again host the Cutting Edge Lecture Series. Leading IUPUI professors will engage the campus and community this spring in discussions about rapidly changing fields of inquiry in this on-campus lecture series. The speakers will share their expertise and insights regarding the applications of their current research with a particular emphasis on engaging non-specialists, including faculty, staff and students from schools across IUPUI.

All lectures will be in the University Library Lilly auditorium at 4:30 p.m. and are open to the general public. Faculty, staff and students are encouraged to attend.

The speakers and topics:

March 4 – Hope & Optimism: the Effects of Beliefs about the Self and the World
Kevin Rand, Psychology

March 11 – Challenges for Sustaining and Improving Water Resources in Indiana
Lenore Tedesco, Earth Science

March 25 – What Are We Made Of? The Basic Structure of Matter
Uday Sukhatme, Academic Affairs and Physics

April 1 – Privacy Disruptions: What they Are and Why They Bother Us
Sandra Petronio, Communication Studies and TRIP

April 8 – Race, Space, Crime and the African American Entrepreneur
Bessie House-Soremekun, Political Science

For more information about the lecture series and the speakers, visit www.iupui.edu/administration/acad_affairs or email lriolo@iupui.edu.