This week on Sound Medicine

Tune in at 4 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 14, to Sound Medicine, the weekly radio program co-produced by IUSM and WFYI Public Radio (90.1 FM) in Indianapolis. The program is hosted by Barb Lewis. Co-hosts this week are Steve Bogdewic, PhD, and Kathy Miller, MD.

Guests include Amy Peak, PhD, director of drug information services for Butler University's College of Pharmacy & Health Sciences, who will explain the manufacturing process of the flu vaccine.

Craig Surman, MD, scientific coordinator for the Adult Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder Research Program at the Massachusetts General Hospital, and Ken Patterson, an ADHD patient and author of ADD and Me: Forty Years in a Fog, discuss diagnosis and treatment of adult ADD/ADHD.

Kelly Gallagher-Kiley, licensed clinical social worker with Southside Counseling Associates in Indianapolis, will discuss seasonal affective disorder, its symptoms, and treatments.

Sound Medicine executive producer Nora Hiatt will narrate a special segment on the Gennesaret Free Clinic, an Indianapolis not-for-profit agency assisting people without health insurance to get much-needed health care from volunteer physicians and nurses who provide free medical care

Archived editions of Sound Medicine, as well as other helpful health information, can be found at soundmedicine.iu.edu/.

Submissions to Scope

Scope wants your news items.

The deadline for submission is 8:30 a.m. on Fridays. Scope is published electronically and sent to faculty, staff, students, and residents.

There are three easy ways to submit story ideas or information to Scope:

- e-mail the information to mhardin@iupui.edu
- mail the information to Mary Hardin, Z-7, Ste. 306, IUPUI
- paste your plain text message into Scope Web form on the IUSM faculty & staff page: <http://medicine.iu.edu/faculty>

Contributions submitted by e-mail should be forwarded in 12 point, plain text format.

In the interest of accuracy, please do NOT use:

- acronyms
- abbreviations
- campus building codes (use full, proper name of building and include the room number)
- Dr. as a preface before names (designate MD or PhD)

To keep the electronic version of Scope as streamlined as possible, only seminars and lectures of general or multidisciplinary interest will be included.
