Relationship-centered care at IUSM featured in AM News

"Rewriting the hidden curriculum: Keeping empathy alive" is a feature article in the American Medical Association's April 24 issue of American Medical News. The article discusses relationship-centered care at IUSM and the how that focus is "changing the academic climate" and creating more sensitive physicians.

Tom Inui, MD, president and CEO of Regenstrief Institute, Richard Frankel, PhD, a medical sociologist at IUSM and senior scientist at Regenstrief Institute, are quoted in the article.

The article can be accessed through IUSM Medical Library or through AMED News if you are a subscriber and have a password. The link is www.ama-assn.org/amednews/2006/04/24/prsa0424.htm.

Purdue to host fourth annual Life Sciences Business Plan Competition

Purdue University, in collaboration with the Lilly Endowment Inc., is seeking entrants for the 2006 Life Sciences Business Plan Competition, which offers cash and prizes in excess of $143,000.

The competition seeks entrants who are developing products and services in the life sciences industry and are able to describe the path to market for their research. It also provides a learning opportunity for researchers, students and faculty who are interested in technology commercialization. Participants and spectators in this competition will have the opportunity to showcase cutting edge technology, network with venture capitalists or other potential investors, and to make contacts with potential corporate partners.

A letter or e-mail expressing an intention to participate with an executive summary of the project is due by June 2, 2006. Semi-finalists will be announced June 26, 2006, and the business plan and final entry documents are due by July 31, 2006. Finalists will be announced Aug. 21, 2006, and the final competition is planned for September 13, 2006, on the Purdue campus in West Lafayette, Ind.

For complete details and to register online, visit the competition website:

<http://www.purdue.edu/discoverypark/lifesciencescompetition/>

Questions should be directed to the competition coordinator via email to BDMCenter@purdue.edu, or by phone at (765) 494-6400.

The competition flyer is available at http://www.purdue.edu/DiscoveryPark/pdf/flyer_05.pdf.

Scope submission guidelines

Scope wants your news items.

The deadline for submission is 8:30 a.m. on Thursdays. Scope is published electronically and sent to faculty, staff, students, and residents.

There are three easy ways to submit story ideas or information to Scope:

- e-mail the information to mhardin@iupui.edu
- mail the information to Mary Hardin, Z-7, Ste. 306, IUPUI
- fax your information to (317) 278-8722

Contributions submitted by e-mail should be forwarded in 12 point, plain text format.

In the interest of accuracy, please do NOT use:

- acronyms
- abbreviations
- campus building codes (use full, proper name of building and include the room number)
- Dr. as a preface before names (designate MD or PhD)

To keep the electronic version of Scope as streamlined as possible, only seminars and lectures of general or multidisciplinary interest will be included.
